UPDATE OF BURNS PAIUTE – COVID-19

The Burns Paiute Tribal Council at its May 6th, 2020 meeting, voted to extend its “Declaration of Emergency” to June 1st, 2020.

Following the June 1st, 2020 date, the Tribal Council will re-evaluate the Coronavirus-19 Pandemic situation on this date. The evaluation will determine whether to continue the Declaration or to open all Tribal Services for regular business.

All Tribal Office will remain closed at this time until June 1st, 2020. Certain Tribal Offices will be open to provide essential services to the Community, this will include Tribal staff.

Because of the delay related to the Coronavirus Pandemic, this will have affect on the June General Council. It is at this General Council meeting, the floor will be open for Tribal Council nominations for council positions; and other businesses.
